

State Summary

State Name	25 ug/dL	20 ug/dL	Two consecutive 15 ug/dL (90 days apart)	15 ug/dL	Two consecutive tests 10-14 ug/dL	10 ug/dL	5 ug/dL	Local Health Departments Intervene at lower levels	Notes
California		X	X					Yes
Connecticut		X							Being lowered to 2 consecutive 15 ug/dL as of
Georgia					X
Ohio				X		X			Cincinnati and Cleveland intervene at 5 ug/dL. Investigation for a 10 ug/dL may or may not include a risk assessment depending on the situation.
Illinois						X			Law also authorizes primary prevention inspections in multifamily dwellings if 2 EBLS have been identified in the same building during a 5 year period.
Indiana						X
Kansas						X
Maine				X
Massachusetts	x (mandatory)								Offered for all units with a child under 6
Michigan		X						Yes	No state mandate. For agencies that the state funds, they intervene at 10 ug/dL
Mississippi		X	X	X
Minnesota				X
New Jersey				X					Expected to be lowered to 10 ug/dL
North Carolina		X (required)	X			X (offered)		Yes	Guilford investigates for confirmed 8-9 ug/dL

State Name	25 ug/dL	20 ug/dL	Two consecutive 15 ug/dL (90 days apart)	15 ug/dL	Two consecutive tests 10-14 ug/dL	10 ug/dL	5 ug/dL	Local Health Departments Intervene at lower levels	Notes
Oregon						X			Environmental investigation at 10 ug/dL or higher. Portland sends out educational materials for levels between 5 and 9 ug/dL
Rhode Island		X	X					Yes	Providence intervenes at 10 ug/dL
South Carolina		X	X
Texas		X	X					Yes
Vermont							X		Will automatically send education materials for 5-9 range and educate upon request for 5 and below
Wisconsin		X	X					Yes	