

National Healthy Housing Policy Summit

May 7, 2009
Washington, DC

The National Center for Healthy Housing is organizing a National Healthy Housing Policy Summit which will be taking place in Washington, DC on May 7, 2009.

The Summit will bring together a “G-40” of leaders from an array of disciplines to focus on the best policies, programs and practices to create healthier housing for America’s families. The National Healthy Housing Policy Summit will give these leaders, a chance to “bust silos,” build new bridges, strengthen current relationships, and exchange new ideas.

Sponsorship Opportunities

The following sponsorship opportunities are available:

Travel scholarships: 3 sponsorships opportunities available - $3,000 each- Sponsors will be recognized on all collateral materials.

Briefing papers and Summit Report: 5 sponsorship opportunities available - $1,500 each - Sponsors will be recognized on briefing papers and final report, which will be broadly distributed.

The following sponsorship opportunity is filled:

Luncheon sponsorship: $8,500 - Sponsor will be recognized on all collateral materials and by keynote luncheon speaker. Additionally, this sponsor will be recognized on the Summit Report which will be posted on NCHH’s website and distributed widely.

The Panel of 40 non-profit leaders will represent leading organizations and experts in:

- Housing, public health, and environmental policy;
- Housing finance, construction, codes, rehabilitation, and management;
- Green building, energy efficiency, indoor air quality and environmental health; and
- Tenant rights, homeownership, and community organizing.